With sincere appreciation we dedicate . . .

to Mr. George M. Wilson

In Mr. Wilson we find a sincere friend, as well as an accomplished teacher. We cherish and appreciate his knowledge of English and most of all his human understanding. He has always been willing to give of his time and energy to make our years at Meadow High more profitable. As a Junior sponsor, he worked with untiring effort and enthusiasm.

Without hesitation and with pride we offer our appreciation and affection with the dedication of the 1965 TUSCARORA.

Principal

Mr. George G. Beasley

Secretary

Mrs. Fayz Mastergill

Dear Citizens:

We have heard much about "the great society" during the past few months. Perhaps some of you are asking the question, "but is 'the great society' and what does it hold for us?"

It has been said by historians and economists that progress on this planet called "earth", doubled from the time of Christ to the beginning of the fifteenth century; that progress doubled once again from the fifteenth century to the beginning of the twentieth century; that progress doubled from the twentieth century to 1950; that progress doubled from 1950 to 1960; and, that progress doubled from 1960 to 1966. It is believed that progress will double once again from 1966 to 1976. Therefore, should we not refer to this day and age as "the great society"?

Most economists agree that at least 70% of you who are now high school seniors will be employed ten years from now on jobs that have not yet been created. New discoveries and new developments by our scientists and our technicians will hasten to bring us "the new decade...the great society" in our fast-changing planet.

Through education you will remain a society of free men—a society in which you as individuals will be better able to make wise decisions. The real test of your education is the "the great society" will be reflected in how you live as individuals and as groups. If you cherish hatred and extermination, your education has failed. If you learn how to love and understand your fellow man, your education has been truly successful and you will have earned a rightful place in "the great society".

Sincerely,

George G. Beasley

HELLO, GOOD-BYE, MEADOW HIGH

Put up the window; toss out your blues
We've been taught to tell the news
Of Dear Old Meadow, so much alive,
And the Senior Class of sixty-five.

To all we extend a cheery hello;
Now wish us luck as on we go.
We stand alert, so tall and proud,
Singing our praises, clear and loud.

Twelve years ago we were very small,
Running and skipping throughout the hall.
But once we learned the Golden Rule,
We found our place in this great school.

Not one of us will ever forget
Our parents, our teachers, and friends we've met.
Through all our sorrows, our joys, and tears,
There have been such wonderful years.

To all our classmates of Meadow High
The time has come to say good-bye.
Looking forward to a future unknown,
We ask our Lord to guide us on.

Give us courage to face the years
Help us give others smiles and cheers.
To all we say with our last sigh,
"Hello, Good-bye, dear Meadow High."

As group Freshmen, we entered high school, and through the years we increased in knowledge.

In mathematics we learned more about figures.

We were told a fascinating story in history.

We learned the secret of shorthand.

In chemistry we became better scientists.

And as sophisticated seniors we must leave school life behind and enter into the world of adulthood.

School Plays

Can you imagine what life would be like to live in a household of four young girls? Think of all the sorrows, problems, and romances which they share. There were many such escapades which took place in the March family. A cast of eleven players presented the Senior Play "Little Women." The characters were--Jo (Patsy Wood), Meg (Brenda Tuck), Beth (Linda Lee), Amy (Judy McLamb), Mrs. March (Judy Adams), Laurie (Carl Pearson), Mr. Lawrence (Randy Beasley), John Brook (Doyce Tart), Aunt March (Brenda Parker), Hannah (Carolyn Jones), and Professor Bhaer (Alice Wheeler).

As Juniors, our class gave two one-act plays. The dramatic play was "The Valiant" which included a cast of six. Those starring in the play were Roscoe Moore (Warden Holt), Thomas Langston (Father Daily), Randy Beasley (James Dyke), Patsy Wood (Josephine Paris), Larry Joe Dunn (Dan), David Lee (an attendant). The plot is concerned with whether or not James Dyke is the brother of a young girl who comes to see him.

Our second play was a light comedy, "The Ghost Story" including a cast of ten members. The characters were George (Carl Pearson), an earnest young gentleman, Anne (Linda Thomson), a pretty young girl, age 20, Mary (Roxie Barfoot), Grace (Brenda Tuck), Lennie (Shel Barfoot) were friends of Anne, Tom (Glenwood Johnson), Floyd (Allen Wheeler), Fred (Clyde Barfoot) also friends, and the Household maid, (Faye Harker).

Waiters and Waitresses

On May 8, the Juniors entertained the Seniors of '64 with our Junior-Senior Prom. Our theme, "Southern Plantation," was carried out in the Smithfield Country Club with a large Southern Mansion as the center of attraction. Confederate flags and cotton bolls were the table centerpieces. The "Magnum" provided soft music for the evening and the waiters and waitresses entertained us with a "imitated show." Light refreshments were enjoyed by everyone throughout the prom night. We worked hard to give the seniors a night they would long remember.

EDITOR
Linda Lee

My year as editor has ended. Next year another editor and staff will begin work. To them I wish the best success ever.

An editor alone cannot do all the work an annual requires. Miss Vera Gilliam and the annual staff have invested time and effort in presenting to you a lasting book of memories.

To Mrs. Lael Ozale we express our deepest appreciation for her kindness and professional service she has rendered in helping to make this annual more enjoyable.
